

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, March 18. 1708.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated March 22.

Turin, March 3.

THE 1st of this Month the Duke of Savoy made the Marquis de Codre first Captain of his Life-Guards, Knight of the Order of the amonciada, and first Governor of the Prince of Piemont; the Marquis de Cortanza, now Envoy extraordinary at the Court of Vienna, his second Governour; and the Count del Borgo his Sub-Governour: The Count de Vische is likewise made Gentleman of the Horse to that Prince. The Count della Rocca is made General of Artillery (in the Room of the Marquis de Bagnasco, who is grown too old and infirm for military Service,) and also Governour of Alexandria. His Royal Highness will shortly establish a Household for the said Prince. M. Rhebinder, Commander in chief of all his Royal Highness's Forces, has assur'd him, that Suza is now put into a Condition to hold out a long Siege against an Army of 50000 Men, and that the Enemy cannot well enter Piemont without first taking that Place: However, a double Line is begun to be made along the Doria to Novalesa which stands at the Foot of Mount Cenis; and it will be strengthen'd with double Pallisades; that if the Enemy should attempt to penetrate that Way, they may find Resistance. Count Graneri is speedily to go from hence by Order of his Royal Highness to Milan, to settle with Deputies of that State the Limits of the Territories lately made over to his Royal Highness by the Emperour. 'Tis rumour'd here, that the German Troops which are quarter'd in Italy, will shortly draw this Way to the Marquisate of the Montferrat, to be at Hand to oppose any Irruption which the Enemy may attempt (as they threaten) to make.

Vienna, March 7. The Emperour has laid apart some of his Jewels, intending to make Presents of them to the King of Spain and his Bride; that is to say, for the King a golden Fleece set with Diamonds, a Buckle for his Hat having in it 2 Diamonds as large as Nutmegs; for the Royal Bride, a pair of Diamond Pendants, a Diamond Necklace which the Emperour himself will present to her at the Time of her Departure, the Pendants being to be given her by King Charles. Every Person of her Retinue, is to be allow'd 400 Florins for the Expence of the Journey to Milan or Final. The Emperour will likewise send to his Brother 12 excellent Horses. The Princess of Lichtenstein, with her Retinue of 30 Persons, will have the Charge of her Journey defray'd to Barcelona; but she expects before her Departure 100000 Florins, in Consideration of her Husband's having been 3 Years Governour to King Charles; who has made the Duke d'Elboeuf Commander in chief of the Troops that are still to be transported from Italy to Catalonia, and Grandee of Spain.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated March 24.

Vienna, March 10. 'Tis said the Emperour is willing, that some of the Deputies assembled at Presbourg should as Mediators invite the Malcontents to send their Deputies to the Diet to treat of an Accommodation; and that he is also willing to agree to a Cessation of Arms in the mean while; during which Deputation there will be time to draw the Danish Troops from Bavaria, and some Imperial Troops from other Parts, into Hungary: But the Malcontents seem determin'd to push on their Designs by Force of Arms; to which End Prince Ragorski is drawing together an Army of 30000 Men, and his Generals are assembling other Bodies: At least 'tis likely they will never yield, that any of their Leaders should be excluded the Treaty and general Amnesty. The 8th Instant Count Giannini Envoy of Modena, receiv'd the Emperour's Investiture of that Dutchy in the Name of his Master. Baron Diamanstein Envoy extraordinary of the Elector Palatine, who is come hither to Solicit the Affair of the Upper Palatinate, requires a positive Answer: And 'tis believ'd that Affair will soon be brought to a Conclusion. Yesterday arriv'd here Prince Maurice of Savoy, Nephew of Prince Eugene. The Swedish Secretary refusing here, has been order'd to assure this Court, that the King his Master far from designing to make the Emperour uneasy, was desirous to contract a strict Friendship with him; but hop'd, that seeing his Imperial Majesty had executed the Treaty of Alt Ransstad, he would on his Intervention, give some little Extention to that Treaty by enlarging the Freedom of Religion in Upper Silesia, because his Swedish Majesty is under an Obligation to interpose his good Offices in that behalf. The said Secretary added, that the rejecting the Offer made by the Turkish Envoy to enter Hungary with a powerful Army if the King of Sweden would declare War against the Emperour, was an incontestable Proof of his Swedish Majesty's good Intentions towards the Emperour. The Marquis de Cortanza, who was sent hither by the Duke of Savoy, to concert the Operations of the approaching Campaign, is gone back to Turin, having with him a general Scheme of those Operations; which will be finally agreed in a Conference between the Elector of Hanover, Prince Eugene, and the Duke of Marlborough, and then communicated to the Duke of Savoy. 'Tis now said that the Arch Dutchess which is to be Married to the King of Portugal, will go to Spain with the Bride of King Charles.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated March 23.

Strasbourg, March 12. The Marshal de Villars having receiv'd Order from the King to take the Field with his Army as soon as possible, has caus'd 2 Camps to be mark'd out, one near St. Wendel, and the other below Haguenau on the River Sarr. A good Number of Boats and Pontons are sent towards Brisac, and 200 Waggons are expected here to carry Provisions and Ammunition. The Horse are completely re-mounted, and great Diligence is us'd to recruit the Foot. We have advice, that a Detachment of Carabineers and Horse are order'd by the Marshal de Villars to march to the Netherlands; and 'tis rumour'd that 16 Battallions and 3 Regiments of Dragoons will shortly march that Way to reinforce the Elector of Bavaria: So that in all Appearance the Marshal de Villars will be in no Condition to do any thing considerable in these Parts.

Portsmouth, March 16. Yesterday sail'd from Spithead her Majesty's Ships the Swiftsure, Torbay, Orford, Sheerness, and Maidstone, being order'd to the Northward to joyn Sir George Byng. In the Evening sail'd for the Downes, the Litchfield, Norwich, and Woollwich, with the East and West India Ships and Coasters, in all about 70 Sail. Here are at Spithead the Royal Oak and the Bridgewater order'd into Portsmouth Harbour; and the Warwick and Valeur bound for Newfoundland: The Warwick has made the Signal for the Merchant Ships to prepare to sail.

Yarmouth, March 15. Here continues the Solebay, with the light Ships and Coasters mention'd in my former: And this Evening came to an Anchor in in this Road about 100 Sail of laden Colliers, with 2 Men of War suppos'd to be the Falkstone and Feverham. The said laden Colliers report, that the rest of the Fleet are following them, and we expect them to Morrow Morning.

Harwich, March 16. Yesterday the Eagle, Prince, and Dispatch Packetboats sail'd from hence with 3 Mails for Holland, and a great Number of Recruits for Flanders. This Morning a Fleet of laden Colliers pass'd by for the River. Came in Yesterday a Dutch boat with the Mail from Holland.

Deale, Mar. 16. Yesterday came into the Downes her Majesty's Ships Weymouth and Swallow.

London, March 18.

The Fleet of laden Colliers, in Number about 200 Sail, came into the River Yesterday.

London, March 18.

Yesterday arriv'd 2 Expresses from Edinburgh, the first dated on Saturday Evening, advising that the Enemy's Fleet was making the best of their way Northward, and closely pursu'd by Sir George Bing, the Wind at S. W. The second, which we hear was dated Sunday Morning, brings advice that great firing was heard from the Coast off Fife and Angus, by which it was concluded the English Fleet had come up with the Enemy.
